

B.O.L.O. to Aerial Sprayers, Fertilizer Dealers & Pesticide Dealers,

What You Can Do To Be On the LookOut for Terrorist Activity in Tennessee:

The Governor's Office of Homeland Security and other law enforcement agencies in Tennessee are vitally interested in stopping terrorist activity in this state. But to do an effective job in preventing terrorism in Tennessee we need your help.

If you suspect individuals are engaged in terrorist activity:

- * Do Not attempt to investigate on your own
- * Attempt to obtain a license plate number and a description of vehicle
- * Note time of observation/departure time and physical description of individuals
- * Notify law enforcement officials immediately

If something or someone looks suspicious apply the S.C.A.N. Method

SEE – Suspicious or unusual behaviors

CONFIRM – The accuracy of your observations. If you believe that making contact would put you at risk or in danger, then document your observations by writing them down as soon as it is safe

ASK – If the opportunity presents itself inquire about where they are coming from or going. Be polite and access their reaction. If they are unreasonably agitated by your questions, this should be noted. Thank them for their time and courtesy. If they have questions refer them to your local law enforcement agency

NOTIFY – The local law enforcement and the district Tennessee Highway Patrol headquarters in your area. Other important numbers are listed below.
